

Stop Insurance Fraud

At any time of year, dishonest folks can impact your business:

There are some that may try to stage an accident or exaggerate a legitimate claim in an effort to obtain a quick settlement. It is important to stay vigilant when it comes to claims fraud.

- Keep all interior flooring surfaces clean, dry and free of defects.
- Make sure the parking lot is free of potholes and other blemishes.
- Keep restrooms cleaned and maintained at all times.
- Photograph all accident scenes.
- Obtain all witnesses' addresses and phone numbers.
- Inspect all your video cameras.
- Make sure you preserve all surveillance video—save to a tape or CD.
- Add cameras to the lobby, dining room, play area and exterior of the premise.

Following these basic tips will help cut down on fraud and assist in keeping your insurance premiums as low as possible.
